| JORGE LUIS FLORES CONTRERAS, |) | |

| Defendant. |) | |

The Court has received the Revised Presentence Investigation Report and Addendum (“PSR”), and the government’s objection (Filing No. 417). (The Court takes note that although the Defendant has not filed a formal objection, his counsel did present objections in the Addendum to the PSR, objecting to Paragraphs #36 and #45, essentially agreeing with the government’s objection.) See Order on Sentencing Schedule, ¶ 6. The Court advises the parties that these Tentative Findings are issued with the understanding that, pursuant to United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005), the sentencing guidelines are advisory.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Government's Objection to Revised Presentence Investigation Report and Addendum (Filing No. 417) will be heard at the sentencing hearing, and the Court intends to sustain the objection and honor the plea agreement;
2. The Court intends to adopt the PSR in all other respects;
3. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, the party shall immediately file in the court file and serve upon opposing counsel and the Court a motion challenging these tentative findings, supported by (a) such evidentiary materials as are required (giving due regard to the requirements of the local rules of practice respecting the submission of evidentiary materials), (b) a brief as to the law, and (c) if an evidentiary hearing is requested, a statement describing why an evidentiary hearing is necessary and an estimated length of time for the hearing;

4. Absent submission of the information required by paragraph 3 of this Order, these tentative findings are final; and

5. Unless otherwise ordered, any motion challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.

DATED this 5th day of August, 2013.

Chief United States District Judge
